

AM TRAC Asset Management Tracking software provides reliable company asset information. It allows the user to track company assets reducing paper trails and enabling proper cost allocation by entity. AM TRAC database includes information of each asset location, purchase dates, amounts, current status, movement history... Combined with a handheld mobile computer, AM TRAC Mobile provides accurate and efficient inventory updates from any location.

Product Benefits

- Automate your asset workflow process
- Immediately visualize and track unlimited number of assets
- Increase staff response time
- Access your information from any location without the hassle of configuration
- Track vendor and manufacturer: Quick access to needed information in crisis time
- Quantify ROI :Prevent loss of assets –Perform faster and accurate inventory audit
- Point and scan to conduct inventory, move asset or obtain detailed information
- Visualize and identify patterns through report generation

Key Features

- Provides full asset definition including maintenance notifications
- Dynamically configure different properties for each asset
- Advanced search capabilities using incremental and criteria search
- Maintain a complete history of items life cycle
- Pre-Check all asset transfer between locations
- Mass entry of Asset – Cloning
- Reconcile and merge asset properties and criteria
- Supports multiple depreciation methods including straight line
- Export Standard and user defined reports: Ad-Hoc reporting module
- File attachments; text files and image files
- Security Levels: Create customized roles and grant privilege access

Technical Specifications

- 100 % Web Based Application
- Developed under .NET platform – C#
- Synchronize securely to the host via MS QL DB
- Replicate using TCP/IP (802.11b and Ethernet)
- Flexible interface with your existing ERP

For more Information, please visit www.maliattec.com or call + 961 1 217 100